

INSIGHTS

- Men's street footwear had the highest revenue at $26,542,429 which was 93.59% higher than the product with the least revenue, women athletic footwear at $13,710,530
- Online had the highest sum of total sale at $42,722,581, followed by outlet at $38,198,982 and In-store at $34,430,125, online sales accounted for 37.03% of the total sales.
- The average operating margin for all products was 0.42(42%). Only two products had an operating margin above the average (men's street footwear and women Apparel). Men Athletic footwear had the least operating margin, operating at 2% below average.
- The west region contributes 27.86% of the total sales across all regions and has the most revenue at $25,386,995. There is a direct relationship between total revenue and total profit margin across the regions.
- In July of 2021, the company recorded its highest sale in a month, at $10,368,031. This was then followed by a downward trend of sales till December of 2021 at $5,527,168.
- The operating cost for both in-store and outlets was at 38%, in the outlet method, only men's athletic footwear was below average, while in the in-store all products were below 38% except men's street footwear and women's apparel.
- At 369.03, men's street footwear had the highest average of units sold and was 92.90% higher than men's apparel which had then lowest average sold, at 191.30.
- In the men's section, men's street footwear made the most revenue, while In the women section, women's apparel made the most revenue.